

2021 Year in Review

2021 was another challenging year in terms of the pandemic. Live services started, paused and restarted again depending on the virus but online services were still held weekly on our Facebook page. Thanks to Sensei Robert for all his hard work and for continually looking at ways to improve the picture quality and sound.

After nearly two years of work, we completed the first ever Calgary Buddhist Temple cookbook, "Gochiosama: Memories of Home". This book compiled recipes from members and friends of the temple spanning nearly 70 years. The first printing sold out and a second printing has just been completed. Copies are available at the temple and online.

On a sadder note, we lost Rocky Olshi, long time temple member and past president. We are grateful for his friendship and contributions to the temple. He will be missed.

We look forward to 2022 and the hopes that we will be able to hold more in-person services, meals and fund raising activities. Thank you for your support.

Message from Sensei Robert

The Calgary Buddhist Temple recognizes and is deeply grateful for the harmony and support that our sangha/community provides each year. The sangha is the heart and work which provides the opportunity to gather together and listen to and practice the dharma.

Each year we ask that you consider becoming a member of the Calgary Buddhist Temple and join us in the preservation of its success. The success of the Temple is reflected in the ability to manage monetary commitments but more importantly in the ability for us to unite as a Sangha in the shared interest of practicing and spreading the dharma.

We are truly grateful for your support and may we all continue to be guided by the Light of the Dharma.

Namo-Amida-Butsu,
Sensei Robert Gubenco
